

REMARKS

Claim Amendments

The claims have been amended, as indicated herein, in order to correct minor and inadvertent errors in the numbering of the claims. Claim number 11 was missing from the original set of claims. Applicants have therefore amended the claims to provide a new claim 11, which is indicated herein. The Applicants believe that the lack of a claim 11 was simply a minor error. Applicants also assert that the material taught by newly submitted claim 11 does not constitute new matter and is enabled by Applicants' specification.

Applicants have also amended claims 12-14 and 16-19, which was previously dependent upon claim 11, but should have been dependent upon claim 10. Claim 20 was also amended to add a period at the end of the claim. Again, Applicants do not believe that such amendments constitute new matter, but are merely clarifying in nature. Applicants therefore request entry of the claim amendments, including newly submitted claim 11, as indicated herein.

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: February 27, 2004
